

“Rhapsody of the Seas”

February 2 - 9, 2019

Journey with us as we depart from Tampa on a stunning 7 day Caribbean voyage. We will slowly make way to our first stop, Key West, FL. Everyone and everything in Key West seems to go at its own pace, right down to the ice melting sloooooowly in your margarita glass. Of course, it's not all limes and leisure – Key West is known as the “Winter White House” because of its appeal to visiting U.S. presidents, and the island has been home to literary greats like Ernest Hemingway and Tennessee Williams. After a fun filled day at sea we then stop in Cozumel, Mexico. One of the top diving destinations in the world for its bright storybook coral reefs, the island of Cozumel is also home to a variety of natural beaches. Choose a beach with soft white sand for relaxing, or snorkel off a rockier vista. A destination for both adventure and romance, Cozumel has a year-round Caribbean climate, untrammled jungle and abundant nightlife. Our next arrival will be in the tranquil country of Belize. It's a cliché to say good things come in small packages, but with Belize it just feels right. No bigger than New Hampshire or Israel, Belize doesn't quite fit the mold of Latin America or the Caribbean, but proudly considers itself both. I love the low-key nature of its people and the seamless mix of cultures. Whether you're scuba diving the Blue Hole, zip-lining through the jungle canopy, rappelling down waterfalls or crawling through ancient cave systems, Belize is a genuine adventure. Head to Cayo District where you can tube or canoe through darkened river systems or hard-core spelunk in renowned Actun Tunichil Muknal cave. We then head out to our last port of call Costa Maya, Mexico. offers warm waters in turquoise shades and sandy beaches, is a land blessed by a contrasting ecosystem. Among the tropical forest, wetlands, white, sandy beaches, coral reefs, abundant wild life and wonderful archaeological sites Costa Maya is the perfect place for alternative tourism and delving into the Mayan culture, as many communities still preserve these ancient traditions. Follow the trail and discover the ruins of Kohunlich, Dzibanche and Kinichna, three important archaeological sites that will unveil some of the mysteries of the Mayan society. At this point we again set sail for a day at sea so you can now recover and get pampered in the ships spa, or sit by the pool and work on
