

McKee Botanical Gardens & Waldo's

April 9th, 2026

Today we will travel to beautiful Vero Beach to have a delicious lunch at Waldo's at The driftwood Inn, a unique and eclectic hotel and restaurant, After lunch we will tour the beautiful McKee Botanical Gardens. In 1932, Arthur G. McKee and Waldo E. Sexton opened McKee Jungle Gardens on an 80-acre tropical hammock in Vero Beach, today, more than 100,000 visitors come to the Gardens to explore it's unique flora and fauna. Escape into their world of more than 10,000 plants. McKee's unique 18-acre lush jungle landscape supports one of Florida's most extraordinary botanical collections. Listed on the National Register of Historic places, and recognized by the Garden Conservancy as a preservation project of national significance, McKee Botanical Garden is, as its founders envisioned, a wild place of natural beauty. You won't want to miss this great tour!
