

The Latin Ladies Club Present: Anna Maria Island Beach Day Wednesday, June 5th, 2024

Anna Maria Island is a barrier island on Florida's Gulf Coast. It's known for its broad beaches, like Manatee Beach Park. In the small resort city of Anna Maria, Pine Avenue is lined with shops, galleries and eateries. Anna Maria Island Historical Society Museum features a restored 1920 cottage. Nearby, the wooden City Pier dates from 1911. In Bradenton Beach City, Bridge Street Market sells food, art and jewelry. Join us as we spend the day in this lovely town, on Manatee Beach. This public beach has showers and bathrooms, is home to the Anna Maria Island Beach café and bar, and has a retail store as well. The public beach is located on the free Anna Maria Island trolley route that goes to 9 different stops, and is operational all day. It will take one hour to ride the entire route, or you can stop off for lunch or shopping, and re board the trolley to return. So, bring your towel and suit, or your walking shoes and join us for a day at the beach! We will stop at Fred's Southern Kitchen for dinner on the way home! Activity Level 2
