

Vero Beach Treasures

November 4th, 2021

We will begin our Vero Beach tour with a visit to beautiful McKee Botanical Gardens. In 1932, Arthur G. McKee and Waldo E. Sexton opened McKee Jungle Gardens on an 80-acre tropical hammock in Vero Beach, today, more than 100,000 visitors come to the Gardens to explore it's unique flora and fauna. After our tour, we will head to Waldo's Restaurant at the Driftwood Inn, established in 1935, this eclectic restaurant and beach-front resort is comprised of driftwood and other strange materials, and is listed on the register of historic places! After lunch, we will depart for the Vero Beach Museum of Fine Art for a tour of this unique museum.
